Course Description
This course is designed to equip students to “be always ready with a defense of [their] faith” (1 Peter 3:15) and to expose false teachings and cults (Ezekiel 33; Ephesians 5:11-12; Titus 1:9-16; 2 Timothy 4:2).

Course Objectives
Successful completion of and devoted participation in this course will equip students with:
✦ Da’at (Theoria): ability to articulate the content of their faith to others
✦ Binah (Praxis): skill in discerning whether a teaching aligns with the Word of G-d ✦ Chochma (Poiesis): ability to expose heresies in a spirit of Love and Truth

Course Format
This course will be conducted in an interactive format (andragogy), thus attendance and participation are critical not only to your own success but also to that of your classmates. The course assessments will be in the form of two research activities and a capstone project. ➤ CAPSTONE PROJECT: A presentation (paper, oratory, video, song, etc.) addressing a false teaching (KJV-Onlyism, soul sleep, holy laughter, etc.) or cult (e.g. Wicca, Adventism, Secular Humanism, etc.). This can follow any approach from class.
